

New Jobs

AUDENS is always looking for experienced engineers and analysts who have already worked in customer oriented development teams with Profound knowledge of the English language is mandatory, German and French being an advantage.
Much work can be done from back-office but frequent travelling is also part of our job.

Simply send your info@audens.com

Please check this page regularly for permanent posts.